STORY THEATER AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARIES Improv Theater for Families

SANTA BARBARA, CA -- February 17, 2012 - Storyteller Victoria Goring brings her special improv storytelling performance to all the branches of Santa Barbara Public Library System in March. Ms. Goring's wholesome entertainment introduces children to improv and theater, creating new stories live from their suggestions. Each story is an imaginative journey with positive messages and guaranteed surprises. Families in the audience are delighted and amused by amazing stories made up on the spot for them.

The Santa Barbara Public Library System invites families and children to Story Theater on the following dates:

- Tuesday, March 6 at Central Library, 10:30am (40 E. Anapamu St., Santa Barbara)
- Tuesday, March 6 at Goleta Library, 1:00pm (500 N. Fairview Ave., Goleta)
- Tuesday, March 6 at Montecito Library, 4:00pm (1469 E. Valley Road, Montecito)
- Wednesday, March 7 at Eastside Library, 10:30am (1102 E. Montecito St., Santa Barbara)
- Wednesday, March 7 at Solvang Library, 4:00pm (1745 Mission Dr., Solvang)
